

Application Deadline Looms...

Submitted by paul.meade [1] on 30 January 2012 - 5:28pm

Applications for the Community Outreach Digital Switchover Programme closes tomorrow at 5pm - so now is the time to finalize your application and submit.

The aim of the programme is to assist people who, because of their own particular circumstances, are least likely to make the switch from Analogue to Digital Television Service by October 2012. The Programme will be implemented at a local level by the appointment of one local organisation per county/area to lead an outreach programme involving many organisations and events.

We invite community and voluntary organisations to apply for funding to engage a:

Digital Outreach Champion

In making the application organisations must designate a person who will undertake this work on their behalf.

We're looking for organisations that are networked within the county/area and both interested and capable of supporting the designated person to implement the programme. We're looking for individuals with strong organisational, motivational, networking and project management skills, and who have a real interest in assisting the target group.

Closing date for applications is Tuesday 31 January, 2012 at 5.00 p.m.
