

Who are we?

Positive Futures is positive about people. We transform peoples' lives every day. We support people who have a learning disability, acquired brain injury and autism.

The bottom line is this: wonderful things can and do happen when people get the right support, at the right time, from the right people.

ABOUT US AND THE ROLE

What does a Support Worker do?

Put simply, your job is to support people to live the life they want.

To help you to do this, you will:

- receive a full and paid induction
- spend time getting to know the person you are supporting
- learn how best to support that person
- work as part of a dedicated team to provide support.

You don't need formal qualifications or experience but you do need to be kind, patient, and have a sense of fun.

Who will I be supporting?

You can find out about the person you will be supporting in the attached document: 'Meet me, support me'.
