Our Mission, Vision & Values

Our Objectives

We believe that:

- Nobody deserves to be abused.
- No person should ever have to experience the torture of being abused by a loved one.
- No one should be alone in carrying the burden of blame, shame and judgment perpetrated upon them.
- Early educational interventions with young people entering intimate relationships are key to combating domestic violence in future generations and breaking the cycle of violence.

We acknowledge that:

- Domestic violence is a serious and life-destroying crime for which the client is never responsible.
- It is a cycle of abuse that only escalates with time.
- Occurs in all walks of life – all classes, creeds, ages and races.
- Is an unequal balance of power and control that an individual holds over another in any intimate or close family relationship – husband and wife, same sex partners or adult children and an elder parent.
- Takes many forms, including physical, sexual, emotional, psychological, financial abuse and coercive control.

We commit to:

- Empowering our clients and facilitating them in having a voice.
- Listening, hearing, believing and respecting those who contact us for help, whether they plan to leave an abusive relationship or seek support in staying safe in the relationship.
- Working in a non-judgmental environment supporting clients – only they know the reality of their abuse.
- Maintaining a confidential service for all our clients and ensuring that we always work according to Children First.
